WINTER 2022

Happy Holidays from the Alexander Valley!

With our fast and furious harvest 2022 complete, we have some time to refresh and reflect on a wonderful year. The quality of fruit was great, and we also introduced Syrah and Mourvedre for the first time at Foley Sonoma in preparation for our new GSM blend to be released next year. Winter is also the time of year we like to bring out the best wines to share with friends and family. We have a fantastic selection of wines for you that truly reflect our passion for the Alexander Valley, and that will pair perfectly with your holiday celebrations.

Our 2020 Winemaker Series Alexander Valley Chardonnay comes from vines planted to rich soil that is idyllic for the Dijon and Robert Young clones, two clones that thrive in the Alexander Valley's unique terroir. Fresh lemon, pineapple, and spiced poached pears make this delicious chardonnay a perfect match to your steamed crab, or butternut squash ravioli in a sage butter sauce. The 2019 Fanucchi Ranch Alexander Valley Sangiovese is a unique wine for the region, and comes from our neighboring family vineyards, the Fanucchis, who have owned the property for almost 100 years! We make a very limited amount of this wine because it is such a small vineyard, so it is very special to savor with friends and family over the holidays. The 2019 Patty's Patch Zinfandel is sure to grab your palate! We like it mostly for its impressive brambleberry, and blackberry profile that goes perfectly with hearty dishes such as cassoulet.

Finally, the 2019 Winemaker Series Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, our pinnacle wine here, showcases the bold fruit of the Alexander Valley. Fruit for this wine comes from our estate vineyards. Our Clone 337 Cabernet Sauvignon is planted to clay soils, with east-west orientation, and enjoys wonderful, unencumbered sunshine throughout the growing season. Full-bodied, with well-structured tannins, it has notes of cassis, dark fruits, and an intriguing hint of mint and bramble. This is a wine to savor with holiday meal centerpieces like a rosemary and garlic roasted rack of lamb.

I wish you all a holiday season filled with friends, family gatherings, and good wine! We hope to see you soon at the winery for one of our new tasting experiences including our Holiday at the Estate December 3-4!

All the best,
